SWOT Analysis Board of Education: February 12th, 2022

The following is an overview of perceptions that exist among Board of Education members. These opinions should not be assumed factual without additional analysis of school data.

	Usually Positive	Usually Negative
	Strengths	Weaknesses
INTERNAL	- Perception of the Board's transparency - Communication with families - Course offerings, especially AP - Extra-curricular programs (i.e. athletics and arts) - Instructional technology and organizational agility - Resilience of our staff and students - Support from Board of Education - Overall adaptability - Responsiveness to parents - College acceptances - Special education services	- COVID induced learning loss, especially in mathematics - COVID induced disruption to IEP services - Community outreach programs - Aging facilities - Lack of long-range facilities planning - Lack of connection between students and counselors - Lack of communication skills in students - College planning - Polarization within our school community
	Opportunities	Threats
EXTERNAL	- Parental participation - Participation from community agencies (i.e. police) - Commitment from community - Work-based learning opportunities - New support structures resulting from pandemic - Referendum	- Inconsistencies among sending districts (i.e. different testing) - Increasing enrollment - Increased competition for programming (i.e. academic support, STEM)